Hi Mark and Dave

We are thinking of selling our Beetle and buying another cabin cruiser. Can you please tell me if the original warranty and the additional warranty for paintwork are transferable to a new owner.

Many thanks

Hi Dave

Thanks very much for coming across yesterday with your painter. We now feel much more confident about the boat, especially with Jamie's kind offer of a warranty on the paintwork for 12 months from yesterday. We have ordered a skirt to go round the back of the boat (in the same colour red as the boat) and we think it will look fantastic. We already get loads of nice comments on how she looks. The new prop has arrived at Kings Lock but Tattenhall can't fit it until April. I intend to go back to Anderton some time and they might be able to fit it quicker but then again, the Boat lift won't be ready until April at least. I think Dotty will go really well on the river Weaver. I've chosen a 14 x 12 prop because a guy named Michael Dallas (Facebook site) also had problems with his prop on a 25ft Beetle and fitted a 14 x 10 prop which he says he loves. His engine is 16hp so I thought I'd go for a bit more torque with a 14 x 12. As a civil engineer I'm supposed to know a bit about water flow and hydraulics so it's a bit of an experiment for me. You are absolutely right to follow Beta's recommendation and I can go back to 13 x 8 if things don't work out. Please let me know when the painter is coming next and I'll make sure the boat's at Tattenhall.

Best wishes

Engineer notes: It is good practise to use a new locker washer, one wasn't supplied so existing washer used. Nut was found to be damaged from somebody previously using a set of stilsons to remove previous prop. Slight damage noted on weed cutter. Suggest prop is checked again at next docking to ensure all is running as it should.
